Christmas & New Year
Breaks 2011

Christmas Eve, Saturday 24th December

Check in during the afternoon, unpack and take some time to get to know your home from home, our supervised playroom is available for our little guests to enjoy! This evening join us for a drinks reception and a sumptuous dinner followed by Christmas Carols. Minced pies & mulled wine will be served just before Midnight Mass.

Christmas Day, Sunday 25th December

Today is all about relaxation starting with a leisurely brunch in the Garden Room Restaurant. Santa will visit the hotel during the day for younger guests. Afternoon tea, always a grand tradition at The Malton, will be served in the lobby from 3.00pm, later on enjoy a game of cards, curl up by the fire with your book or take a plunge in the pool - the choice is yours! Christmas dinner is a special occasion; it kicks off with a drinks reception followed by entertainment.

St. Stephen's Day, Monday 26th December

Brunch today is served until 12.30pm. If you feel like getting out and about this afternoon we have organised a local tour or you may decide to take a dip in the pool, our supervised playroom is available for our little guests to enjoy! Also available in the Innisfallen Health & Beauty Rooms are a full range of beauty treatments, booking in advance is essential, (brochure and price list are available). Don't miss out on afternoon tea later this afternoon! Dinner this evening is a lavish farewell dinner dance with entertainment.
