Timeless luxury

After warming yourself by the open fire in our entrance hall, ease into a soft velvet sofa and enjoy afternoon tea. You haven't felt this relaxed in years. We like to think time slows down just a little at The Malton. Enjoy the light as it streams through tall windows, ramble through our gardens, and rest for a while on a secluded bench.

From its distinctive architecture to its effortless service and genuine hospitality, The Malton - formerly the Great Southern Hotel - has been a favourite retreat for over 150 years. Where else are you going to find six acres of gardens in the centre of a bustling town?

This is life at The Malton, a Victorian landmark, and one of Ireland's most beautiful hotels since 1854.

a Getaway made just for you

After a restful night, you'll be treated to our sumptuous breakfast. Everything from healthy options to the positively sinful is on offer. After breakfast, the day is yours... and there is no better place to set off for adventure. From here starts the iconic Ring of Kerry, taking you on a breathtaking tour of wild seas and rugged landscapes.

Golf in Kerry is the stuff of legend, with historic links courses like Ballybunion and Waterville rated among the top in the world. For the avid golfer, half a dozen championship courses mean you'll never be short of a challenge.

Enjoy a day in nearby Killarney National Park, with its stunning woodlands, lakes, and mountains. Visit the Outlet Centre, where you can shop to your heart's content, or ramble through the quaint town centre, full of boutiques, cafés and art galleries.

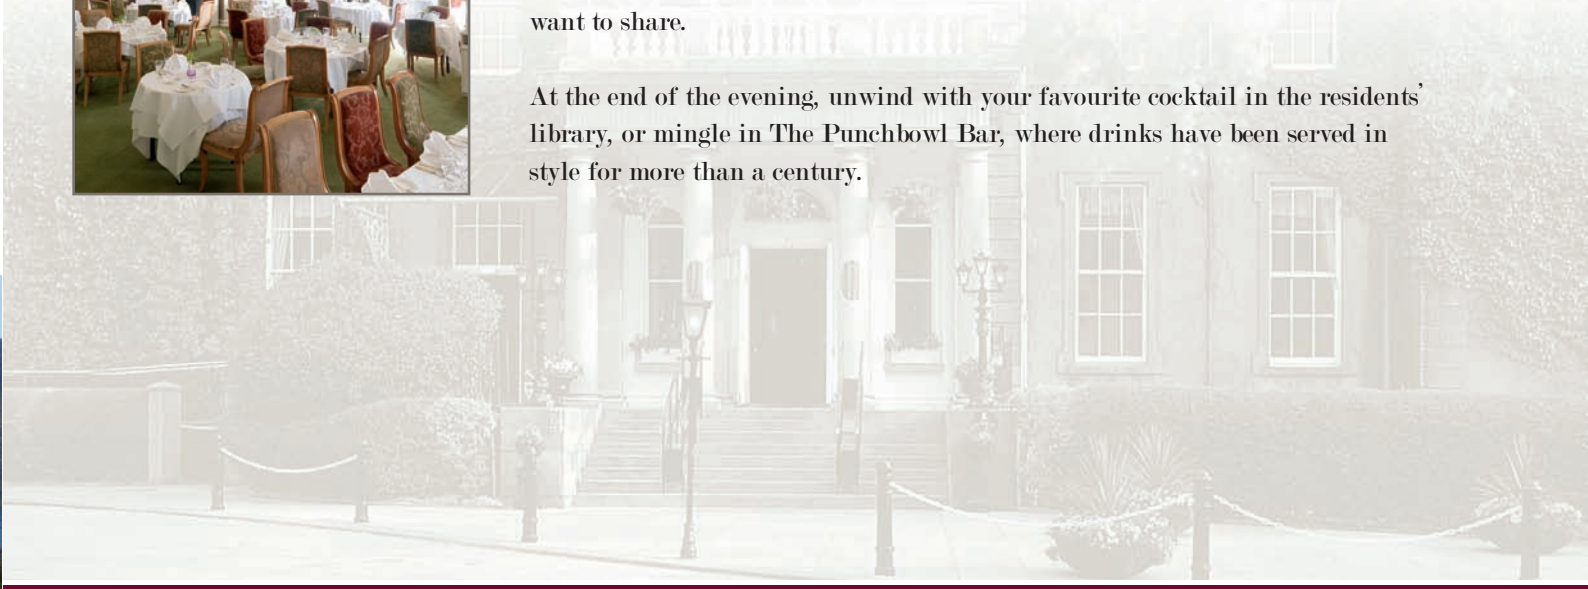

Or maybe you'd rather stay in? Find a sunny window seat and lose yourself in a good book from our library. Or pass a whole afternoon in front of the fire - without once looking at your watch - sipping an afternoon drink and reading the paper.

Tastes and temptations

Have you forgotten just how good simple food can taste? We haven't. We take dining seriously, and our restaurants follow a single principle: the freshest of quality ingredients, sourced locally, and cooked to perfection. Enjoy warm baked bread from The Malton Bakery while our sommelier presents you the perfect bottle from our wine cellar. Whether the occasion calls for luxury on a grand scale or quiet intimacy, dining at The Malton is an experience you'll want to share.

At the end of the evening, unwind with your favourite cocktail in the residents' library, or mingle in The Punchbowl Bar, where drinks have been served in style for more than a century.
